

MOORE BULLDOG GRADUATE PROFILE

Contributing Citizen: Students who graduate from Moore High School will understand civic responsibility, respect the laws that govern them, and be able to contribute to the community in which live.

Understands the importance of making informed decisions, has the ability to ask questions that guide thinking, and understands calculated risk.

Maintains a positive self-awareness, has personal ambition and goals, and works toward a healthy mindset.

Builds positive peer relationships, can convey thoughts and ideas in a transparent manner, assumes personal responsibility, and takes responsibility for their own actions.